THOMPSONVILLE, CONNECTICUT

Dedication

Mother, Teacher, and Friend. These three terms, in all their connotations, epitomize her to whom we dedicate this classbook. As a mother of children in grade and high school, as a teacher of social sciences and English, and as a director of the school play, Mrs. Patricia Bigos gave us that knowledge and understanding which has prepared us to emerge from Enfield High School a better-developed and better-fitted individual for the world of tomorrow.

ECHO

CONTENTS

John Reveruzzi, President

Today's Knowledge Builds Tomorrow's World

The year 1958 has wrought many changes in our mode of life. The orbiting of satellites heralds the transition from the Atomic Age to the Space Age just as the atomic bomb was significant of our change from the Electrical Age. In our generation we have seen dramatic technical achievements such as television, radar, jet airplanes, and guided missiles.

Today, man needs increased technical knowledge and proficiency to adapt himself to the more complicated way of living. However, in order for man to appreciate more fully his technical advancements, he needs more than ever before to build up his knowledge of morality and recognition of human values. The field of medicine has also seen great advancements such as Dr. Salk's discovery of the vaccine to prevent infantile paralysis.

Today, man needs so much more knowledge to survive the constantly changing conditions. The schools are being adapted to meet this problem by providing the necessary facilities for education. Yet, it is impossible to learn all the facts in the short time we have in school. Further education comes from daily contact with problems, the surpassing of obstacles, and the application of both facts and practical knowledge.

The education one obtains depends entirely on himself. What one learns today will prove valuable to one in the world of tomorrow.

We are not unaware of the sacrifices of our parents, friends, and teachers who have made possible our educational opportunities. Now our class is departing after four memory-filled years. Each of us will go his separate way into his chosen field or occupation. All of us will play a definite part in further development of the future world. Tomorrow will be what we make it.

Carolyn Rypysc, Editor-in-Chief

Editor's Message

This is Enfield High School. It is the building in which we have spent five hours a day, five days a week, thirty-eight weeks a year for the past four years. With Enfield we associate many of our dearest friends and classmates. We think of such enjoyable extra-curricular activities as the exciting sporting events and the extravagant proms. In truth, Enfield High School is the Mecca of our little world, a pulsating center of activity which cannot be forgotten for many years to come.

This is the Enfield Echo, our classbook. In it are recorded all the significant phases of our school life, our scholastic achievements, our extra-curricular activities and the many incidents included within the scope of our social lives. In the future when we pause in our haste for a moment of retrospection, we shall linger just a bit longer over our four years at Enfield. Through the contents of this book, our Echo, we shall be able to relive and enjoy those moments when "Dreams were true while they lasted and did we not all live in dreams?"

Enfield Board of Education and Administrators

These gentlemen are the planners, the policy makers and administrators of our educational system. Drawn from the fields of business, industry, agriculture, management, and labor, they furnish the knowledge and experience necessary to help plot our course through the educational phase of our lives. Besides the usual courses of English, mathematics, history, and commercial subjects, we have had made available to us, in recent years, many additional subjects to help us "round out" our practical education. Shop courses, driver education, speech, and Business English are among the subjects most recently added to our curriculum. In addition, our executives, Mr. Lee and Mr. Homicki, together with the principals are working out a program of intensification of study in such fields as mathematics and sciences, as well as in the field of business. These are the men to whom we are indebted for the wise investment of a million dollars a year in public education in the Town of Enfield.

CLASS HISTORY

Graduation Day — At long last this day of days has arrived, the day for which we have worked and strived for four years. As we look back to our Freshman year, we remember how far away 1958 looked and what an eternity those four years appeared. Now that we are seniors, we wonder where those four years have gone, and we realize that this period has been merely a brief interval in our lives.

Back through time and space, we now will journey to that momentous morning in September, 1954, when we, as frightened, bewildered freshmen, set out on our great adventure in search of knowledge. Confusion reigned and orders flew that first day. But it was not long before we were made aware of the customs and traditions of Enfield High. Friendships grew and the time soon came for the election of our class officers. The leadership of our class was entrusted to Matthew Porcello, President; Mary Devine, Vice-President; Nancy Bourgeoise, Secretary; and Helen Kineas, Treasurer.

Tradition dictated that there be a formal greeting to the Freshmen to acquaint them with the customs of Enfield High. And so, with anticipation and glee, we were cordially welcomed at the Senior-Freshman Reception.

We were proud to have Frances Cummings, Bruce

Prior, and John Reveruzzi represent our class in the annual dramatic production, "Beauty and the Beef."

Helen Maslanka brought new honors to our class by winning the Freshman English Essay Award and Carolyn Rypysc received a "Summa Cum Laude" award from the National Latin Honor Society.

Our first year flew by on the wings of time and after a most enjoyable summer vacation, we returned to school to resume our journey into the realm of knowledge.

To guide us through our second year we elected Bruce Prior, President, and his co-workers, John Reveruzzi, Vice-President, Helen Maslanka, Secretary, and Joan Trapanese, Treasurer.

"Life With Mother" was 1956's stellar theatrical production and again Fran Cummings, Bruce Prior, and John Reveruzzi exhibited their thespian talents.

Our sophomore year was a turning point in our high school careers. From this time on we were really working to become an outstanding class.

After three months' vacation, we once again entered the portals of Enfield, this time as Juniors and full-fledged upperclassmen.

We elected as representatives to the Student Council, Matthew Porcello, Helen Maslanka, Pam Mallard, Edward Jekot, Nancy Bourgeoise and Helen Kineas.

CLASS HISTORY

At the famed All-State Concert in Hartford, our class was ably represented by Albert Goodale, Helen Maslanka, and Robert Jemiolo.

The main event of the year was the Junior Prom, "Melody Lane," with Roger Ward and Frances Cummings acting as host and hostess.

On the baseball diamond, Ray Turek, Matt Porcello, Joe Marone, Will Bourque, Dale Carpenter, Fred Chickosky, and Wayne Smyth helped to boost the team on to a successful season.

At the end of the year, Carolyn Rypysc represented our class at Laurel Girls' State, while Donald Tenerowicz, John Reveruzzi, Bruce Prior, George Rutherford, and Joseph Krawczyk, shared honors at Nutmeg Boys' State.

The Junior year came to an end with the enjoyable Farewell Prom, "Almost Paradise." As we entertained the departing Seniors, Matthew Porcello and Nancy Bourgeoise presided as host and hostess.

When we entered the halls of Enfield last September, it was difficult to realize that we were finally Seniors. The Senior-Freshman Reception was the first event on our social calendar. Everyone worked towards making for the Freshmen a fine introduction to Enfield High School.

As Seniors we did things in a big way. During election week the halls and classrooms were covered with posters. There were political rallies and campaign speeches. Election week came to a climax with the announcement that John Reveruzzi was our new President, Joseph Marone our Vice-President, Nancy Bourgeoise, Secretary, and Donald Tenerowicz, our new Treasurer.

We were efficiently represented at the Press Conference held at the University of Connecticut by Cindy Leaf, Mary Devine, Elizabeth Romano, Elsie Tatoian, Helen Maslanka, Eileen Mercik, and Marcia Delnickas.

In December, Roger Ward was featured in the annual school play, "Tattletale." He was ably assisted by such fine actors and actresses as Elsie Tatoian, John Reveruzzi, Mary Devine, Jean Provencher, Flo Patrevita, Genevieve Buczynski, and Willie Bourque. Behind the scenes, Joan Trapanese and Edward Jekot, as student business managers, contributed to the success of this fine production.

The athletes of the previous year continued their good work—Wayne Smyth and Will Bourque were co-captains of the football team. Other gridiron stars were Joe Marone, Bob Burns, Ed Jekot, Tom Grogan, Matt Porcello, Dale Carpenter, and Tom Cuscovitch.

The cheerleading squad was led through its sixth consecutive season by co-captains Jean Provencher, Flo Patrevita, and Phyllis Bartholomew.

Will Bourque brought honor to our distinguished class by receiving the annual football award of Most Valuable Player and a position on the Valley Wheel All-Star Basketball Team.

As part of our winter activities, the Senior Prom, "Sno-Ball," gave us an enjoyable evening together. The affable Edward Jekot and charming Helen Kineas acted as host and hostess.

Other distinctive awards presented to members of our class were the "Homemaker of the Year" bestowed on Mary Ann Angelica and the High Proficiency Certificate for Achievement in Spelling awarded by the National Office Management Association to Irma Young, who attained a perfect score in each of three spelling tests, consisting of one hundred words each.

Two of our senior boys were also nominated to attend two of our country's fine military academies. Joseph Marone was selected for West Point and Edward Jekot for the United States Air Force Academy in Denver, Colorado.

Co-Captains Will Bourque, Dale Carpenter, and Joe Marone led the basketball team on to a successful season. Enfield took second place in the Valley Wheel league with a 7 win-3 loss record.

Carolyn Rypysc was the choice of the class and faculty for the annual good citizenship prize of the Penelope Terry Abbe Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Our last year has been so filled with activity that almost before we realized it our Washington trip was over and commencement has descended upon us.

Now that the days that we have traveled into the world of knowledge embodied in Enfield High School have ended and we take a new course to our life ahead, we look back with fond memories of this, the Class of 1958, and say that this history is not ended, for greater things are yet to come.

CLASS PROPHECY OF 1958

Yesterday as I was thumbing through my scrapbook, I came across a section which contained the pictures and clippings of my graduating class.

The first picture was that of David Reuter, the class scientist, who recently developed a process for controlled rainmaking. Last time I heard of him, he was being sued for flooding out a picnic. Next to him were Albert Goodale and Joseph Krawczyk, who are also in the field of scientific weather control. They aren't doing too well, however, for last July we had a very severe snowstorm. This may not have been entirely their fault because it is believed that their secretary Nancy Danforth, received the wrong results from the new infallible polyvac computer developed by Joseph Marone and Bruce Prior.

I turned the page and came upon the pictures of Wayne Smyth, Thomas Szypula, and Harvey Snyder who are very successful with their manufacturing of the Triple-S heat induction cooking unit. They are assisted in the laboratory by Mary Ann Angelica and Earline Maylott, dieticians who are compiling a new cook book to be used with the new heat induction unit. These girls are recommending in their cook book, the use of the newly developed rose-cabbage, which is the result of the efforts of James Parker. James claims that when cooked, a rose-cabbage tastes like a cabbage and smells like a rose.

Glancing at the next page I found a picture of the football team. Two of the boys who have gone on in the field of athletics are Wilfred Bourque and Robert Burns. Willie is director of athletics at Enfield and Bob is the head football coach. Matthew Porcello is the principal of this multi-million dollar institution. Dale Carpenter, of course, engineered the construction. (Maybe that is the reason that it cost so much.) Thomas Grogan is director of the audio-visual instruction program. Edward Jekot is the executive vice-president of Interplanetary Space Lines. Of the three hundred pilots, his best navigator is Thomas Cuscovitch, pilot of the new D.D.T. Special, the hyper-constellation designed by Pamela Mallard and Denise Boman, two of the prettiest scientists I know.

Next to the football picture is a newspaper clipping written by Cynthia Leaf and Mary Devine and a photograph by John Reveruzzi, taken with his solar-powered optical transmutter camera. The clipping related that Frederick Chickosky developed a chicken food condensed from the air which produced multi-colored hard-boiled eggs! (Very convenient at Easter time!!) Nicholas Giaccone tried feeding his chickens this food and those that ate it turned multi-colored and stopped laying eggs.

Moving on I found a small section devoted to the field of medical research. One clipping read, "New Revelation in Medical Field." Marcia Delnickas and Claudia Teabo found that you-know-what doesn't contain 20,000 filters! However, Suzanne Jaworski topped the listings for devising a germ filter which has proved helpful in reducing cases of dipsois in Upper Asia Minor. Linda Newberry has received much acclaim from the critics for her complete coverage of the event. Josephine Scalia found that it is a delightful side dish with spaghetti.

On the next page, I saw a picture of Helen Maslanka and Phyllis Bartholomew, who in two weeks will make their television debut on Linda Ashton's "Make Mine Music!" They will sing "Catch a Falling Sputnik." Also, appearing on the show will be Barbara Jolly and Jean Provencher dancing to the music of Bill Whiteley's "Jumpin' Jacks." Dorothy Kurlick is acting as his press agent.

The adjacent picture was that of the home economics class. Lately I've seen but four of the gang. There is Diane Ceberek whom I saw yesterday. She is the head of the clerical department at Aetna Life Insurance Company. The secretaries in her department are Nancy Bourgeoise and Jacqueline Jenkins. (Lucky company to have former E.H.S. students!)

On the following page I came across a picture of Mayor John Dewaine and four of the residents of the Scitico metropolis. There was Beverly Buika, who is one of the nurses of the Scitico Have-Mercy Hospital. The second largest building in Scitico is the Consolidated School. This institution was built by James Kraucunas and George Rutherford. I have been informed that some of the outstanding teachers there are Carolyn Rypysc, Marianne Ravenola, and Ella Cerrato. Carolyn is teaching chemistry and nuclear research. Ella is lecturing the parents of the elementary students on "How to Curb Smoking in the Lower Grades," while Marianne is tutoring the football team in English composition. Three of the better elementary teachers are Joan Tenerowicz, Diane Clark, and Elsie Tatoian. Joan is teaching the second graders how to adjust their new solar-atomic wings. Diane is psychology counselor for the first grade and Elsie is teaching pre-primary algebra.

Scitico has proved to be a good match for Enfield in the athletic field, too. There is a good reason for this as Roger Ward heads the Scitico basketball team and is the director of athletics. The girls' teams are coached by Florence Patrevita. In fact, these organizations have done so well that the principal, John Riegel, has had to order new trophy shelves. The student councils of both Enfield High and Scitico High purchase their candy from David Crand, better known as "Crand, the Candy Man."

The latest clipping I have about the school is that Jacqueline Gauvreau who is the head of the vocal department, is putting on a concert featuring Robert Jemiolo's Enfield Philharmonic Orchestra. Ann Jarvis is the lucky secretary to this orchestra.

As I came upon the photo of Joan Trapanese it brought to mind the Rambling House Publishing Company, which was built about four years back. Since Joan's novel, "The Drac-Orchid," was a best seller, she decided to start her own publishing company. She contracted Robert Gates and John Welch to design the building. It resembles the Leaning Tower of Pizza. The major portion of the construction was done by the "Cosmic Bonding Company" organized by Ronald Griger and Richard Cockerham.

When the building was completed, Joan employed several of the former Enfield students, Diane Eccleston and Joan Wallison as co-editors of the publishing company. It takes the combined efforts of Joanne Giaccone and Joyce Ashline to transcribe the novels of Jean Robichaud. The shipping department which uses the fourth dimension theory for moving the books is managed by Richard Frangiamore and Shepard Page who developed the idea. The chief receptionist of the shipping department is Darby Robinson who schedules the various deliveries.

The next news item mentioned the spectacular development of a time machine which enables persons to go forward or backward into time. John Thompson and Raymond Turek have been working assiduously toward this goal. Eileen Mercik and Elizabeth Romano, however, through the testing of the machine, were able to make invaluable improvements in the mechanism of the time device. Barbara Thompson is the coordinating secretary and keeps a log of Jack's and Ray's travels.

The following two pages were completely used up by snapshots and clippings concerning the field of cosmetics. Marie Trombly and Carolyn Copeland have opened a salon which features the use of colored hair sprays. These sprays were first introduced at the Bi-Planet Style-O-Rama. The fashions from the moon were nice, but they did not receive as much notice as the stereo-ethylene gowns modeled by Judith Smith and Judith Clarkin, which were designed by Genevieve Buczynski and Ann Tracey.

Another feature of the show were the shoes worn by Carol Anair and Ann Bosco. These shoes combine the advantages of high heels and flats, in that the heels can automatically be raised or lowered to meet the needs of the wearer. Monsieur Albert Pflug, designer of these shoes, claims any woman can alter her height as much as five inches in two seconds. Representing the United States as hostesses were Helen Kineas and Judith Seminara. They also appeared in the show as models along with Angeline Ravenola and Leone Knapp displaying the Plutonian Upsweep.

Frances Cummings and Margaret Chrzanowski proved a hit with the crowd while introducing the new see-through-fog glasses. Frances explained how to turn them on during the fog and, due to circumstances beyond her control, Margaret had the opportunity to show what went wrong and how to shut them off.

The entire furnishings for the fashion show were designed by the noted interior decorators, Fred Harris and Albert Polek. They had many of the decorations made by Madeline LeBel and Gayle Patterson who own and operate the Synthetic Textiles Corporation.

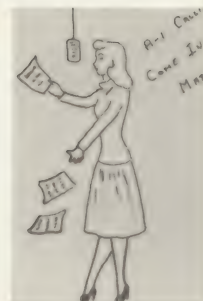

On the page following the articles concerning cosmetics, I saw a picture of Kenneth Degreenia and it reminded me of how enjoyable classes had been with Kenny. Today Ken has a show of his own called "Money by the Minute." This program has been among the top ten in popularity ratings ever since its premiere, when Phyllis Sideravage began her climb for the $64,000,000 question with her category, the history of unknown physiognomies. Since Donald Tenerowicz has been the announcer of the program, more people have bought "Your Sin" perfume than ever before. This marvelous scent was perfected by Lillian Brooks and Diane Rolston.

The next picture showed Rita Browne and Rosemary Sevarino designing the wardrobe for the new Broadway smash hit, "The Martian Story." In the article beneath the picture, I read that this comedy was produced by Paul Grosso, a graduate of A.C.T. College in Western Australia.

Closing my scrapbook with a nostalgic sigh, I came to the opinion that Enfield High School should be proud of the accomplishments of its "Class of '58."

At the annual Senior-Freshman reception, Barbara Jolly demonstrates physical agility in this unusual pose. The Senior girls' chorus line will not give the Rockettes any cause for worry, but nevertheless the girls presented a hilarious performance.

Scenes

The motley recruits of Senior boys give a preview of coming events in their lives, as Jekot leads the squad of Bourque, Reuter, Marone, Porcello, Tenero (Hidden) and Thompson through their not-in-step paces.

The recruits having mastered their basic drills anticipate their future assignments in one of the South Sea Isles with Hula dancers, Barbara Jolly and Cindy Leaf. Below is a scene of the more conventional form of dancing as Seniors and Freshmen swing and sway.

Helen Maslanka, assisted by the chorus of Senior larks, F. Cummings, J. Provencher, C. Copeland, E. Romano, D. Boman, E. Maylott, D. Ceberek, C. Leaf, D. Kurlick, A. Tracey, and B. Thompson, remind us all that "You'll Never Walk Alone."

Here are some of our seniors in action. While these activities are not directly related to the classroom, they help in molding the characters of tomorrow's citizens.

One of the seniors' co-operative functions is the annual Senior-Freshman Reception, at which time the freshmen have an opportunity to become acquainted with the school and its extra-curricular activities. At this reception the freshmen become aware of the values of social relationship. On the other hand, talented seniors have an opportunity to display their skills in song, dance and dramatization. These pictures show John Reveruzzi, senior class president, welcoming the freshmen, Helen Maslanka singing "Getting to Know You," and a quartet of senior girls singing "I Cain't Say No". Shown also are the seniors and freshmen as they partake of the refreshments.

Enfield Whips Palmer 55-38

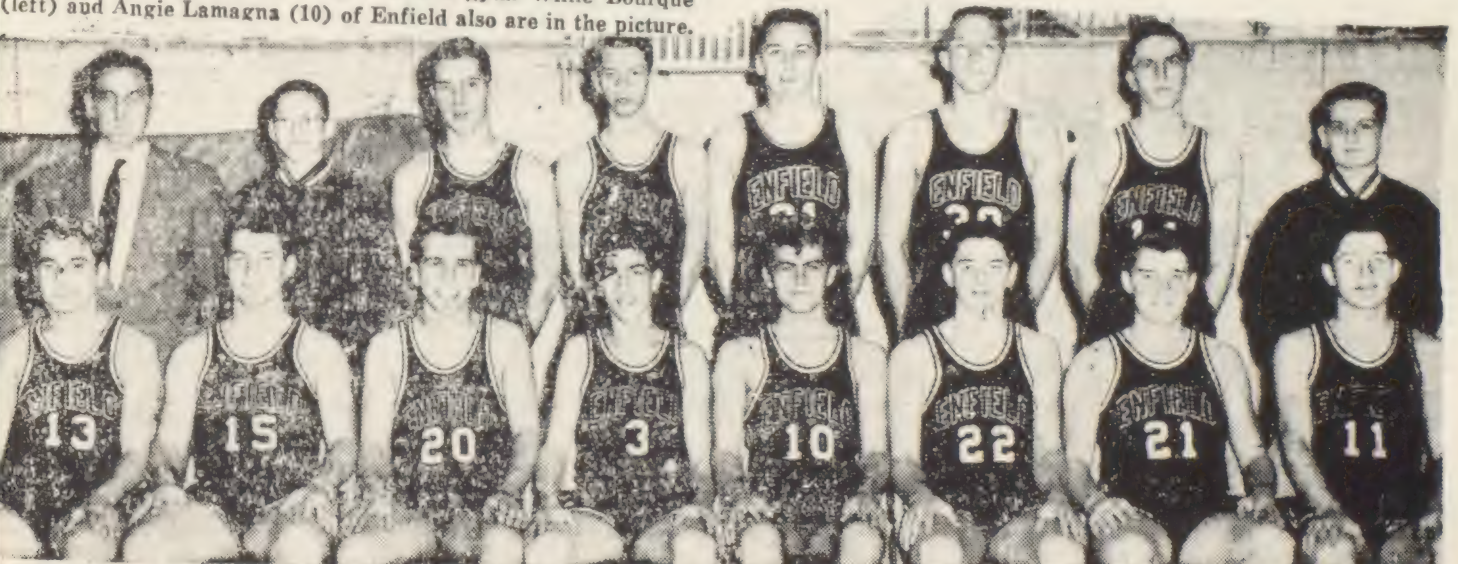

Enfield High's Green Raiders drubbed Palmer last Tuesday afternoon at Palmer by a score of 55-38. The Angelicamen put up a surprisingly stiff defensive game, allowing Palmer only nine baskets from the floor.

Big guns for Enfield were Willie Bourque with 13 points, Joe Marone with 11 markers, and Angelo Lamagna with 10 points although everyone got in the scoring column. Chickosky controlled the boards and also contributed 9 points.

ENFIELD STARTS SEASON

The Enfield High Raiders played Trade yesterday but due to the Press deadline we are unable to tell you the results and highlights. Last Monday the Enfield cagers scrimmaged Classical High in Springfield. Classical is rated as one of the top teams in Western Mass. From all reports the Raiders did extremely well for a young and inexperienced squad. Showing a lot of spark were Willie Bourque, Joe Marone, Angelo Lamagna, Dale Carpenter and Bob Pelligrino.

Enfield High School's basketball team will close its season the same way it started—with a game against Trade—Tuesday afternoon in the Nutmeggers' gym. Student Council

This is one of the few earth-bound clubs in the school. They usually have both feet on the ground, planning wisely and earnestly activities and enterprises which aid and benefit the school. They occasionally were carried away at times, but the advisers carefully and patiently guided them back to earth. However, we think this year's group has done well and let's give a rousing, space-shattering, barrier-breaking cheer for effervescent Student Council.

Delegates to Boys' State and Girls' State

During the last week of June, 1957, five delegates from Enfield participated in the activities of Nutmeg Boys' State and Laurel Girls' State, held each year at the University of Connecticut. Here they were given an opportunity to apply the fundamentals of state and municipal government. This week should make these delegates better citizens of our state and our country in the years to come.

Class Picture Committee

It was the task of this hard-working, earnest committee to coax, bully and persuade the members of our busy Senior class to sit still long enough to have their pictures taken. (It would have been easier to catch up with Sputnik!) Using a highly secret tracking device the committee managed to accomplish its mission by filling the class book with a photographic story of the class of 1958.

All-State Delegates

On the night of October 22, 1957, five musically-minded students from Enfield participated in the annual All-State Chorus and Band Concert held at the Bushnell Memorial Auditorium in Hartford. Here they gained invaluable experience from the many rehearsals and the actual performance.

Yearbook Staff

This energetic, wide-awake, hard-working committee, full of unlimited inspirations, has slaved away all year to produce this masterpiece of literary journalism. Since space seemed to be the current topic of the day, we decided to give our classbook a lift by incorporating in it the ideas of the infinite and mystifying universe.

Junior Prom Committee

As Juniors we looked with great anticipation toward our first prom. The Junior Prom Committee carefully planned the prom, "Melody Lane" to make it a success; and the class took its first big step into the social world of tomorrow.

JUNIOR PROM HOST AND HOSTESS. Roger Ward and Frances Cummings.

SENIOR PROM COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN. M. Porcello, H. Kineas, E. Jekot, J. Reveruzzi, J. Marone, J. Trapanese, J. Tenerowicz.

Senior Prom Committee

The wonderful winterland scene, the dancing snowflakes, the delicious punch, the dreamy band, the darling programs, the cute favors — this prom was out of this world! But believe me, there were times beforehand when the frantic members of the various sub-committees began to wish they were on a one-way trip to the moon. However, by using super-speed atomic energy, and a few revolutionary brainwaves, the work was done and the prom — a success.

SENIOR PROM HOST AND HOSTESS. Edward Jekot and Helen Kineas.

 Second row: R. Morgano, B. Frank, J. Arietti, T. Bodley, J. Danielson, E. Kozlowski, L. Fowler, K. Boland, B. Wheeler, T. Giaccone, B. Bellomo.
 Third row: A. Bajek, C. Holt, T. Phillips, P. Blaney, J. Diegoli, M. DiRosa, D. Argenta.

Senior Y-Teens

Affiliated with the Hartford Y.W.C.A., the Y-Teens not only have social events but also help the Red Cross in their work. In addition the Y-Teens prepare food baskets and Christmas trays for those in hospitals. All these things the members did simply for the benefit of their fellow man.

Farewell Prom

In a tropical setting with gently waving Palm trees, the Seniors danced their last farewells to the strains of "Almost Paradise." The last goodbyes were said to the carefree days they had spent at Enfield, and under the watchful eyes of friends, teachers, and underclassmen, the Seniors departed to find their places in our ever-expanding world.

FAREWELL PROM HOST AND HOSTESS.
Matthew Porcello and Nancy Bourgoise.

FAREWELL PROM COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN. First row: J. Marone, B. Frank, J. DeCaro, J. Arietti, R. Morgano, J. Provencher, and F. Patrevita.
Second row: D. Tenerowicz and J. Reveruzzi.

Marching Band

Rounding out our musical background, we formed a marching band this year. Complete with majorettes, we members of this band gained invaluable experience by performing in public affairs such as parades and at games. There was a variety of instruments included, from the glockenspiel to the trombone. Our performances were well received each time we played. All of us worked together in helping to make this band a success.

Front: Jean Provencher.

First row: C. Squier, M. Weaver, B. Therrien, P. Mallard.

Second row: A. Capen, R. Bungard, D. Gebo, R. Zacaro.

Last row: B. Bellomo, R. Cormier, C. Rypsc, R. Bigda, R. Houltroyd.

Glee Club

To help instruct us along the musical pathways, our glee club was organized under the supervision of Mr. Blake. As members, we learned the fundamentals of music; our music itself ranged from Christmas carols to selections from Carousel. Besides participating in a Christmas pageant, it also took part in many assemblies throughout the year. In addition to the fun and enjoyment we derived from glee club, we also sensed the good feeling of achievement.

Front row: H. Bennett, B. Comrie, J. Krzys, E. Murawski, B. Therrien, R. Blouin.
 Second row: J. Reveruzzi, E. Tatoian, B. Frank, R. Ward, B. Bellomo, M. Bromage, L. Fowler, G. Parkman.
 Third row: E. Jekot, F. Patrevita, G. Buczynski, E. Kozlowski, W. Bourque, D. Harrington, R. Houlroyd, J. Provencher, M. Devine, J. Trapanese.

Play Cast

Through portals of time pass many great actors and actresses. Such "actors" and "actresses" have also passed through the doors and walked through the halls of Enfield High School. Perhaps people all over the universe will never acclaim them as greats of the theater, but they will be remembered by their classmates and friends for their wonderful performance in "Tattletale".

 Second row: M. Carengo, R. Burns, J. Thompson, D. Tenerowicz, K. Degreenia, W. Smyth, M. Porcello.
 Third row: J. Alaimo, W. Bourque, H. Bennett, R. Griger, T. Grogan, J. Marone.

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y, a division of the Y.M.C.A., is one of the most active organizations in our school. The members of this "beehive" are constantly striving to improve the standards of our school by participating in welfare drives and raising funds through the presentation of a play and minstrel. This year's organization is one of the most active groups and their service to their school and classmates will long be remembered.

Mrs. Bigos leads a discussion on the construction of the Constitution.

Back alive!!!! W. Smyth, J. Gauvreau, D. Tenerowicz, E. Tatoian, and J. Dewaine.

Track was revived as a varsity sport. In the spring of 1957 Coach Lamana built a team around a nucleus of five seniors: J. Krawczyk, R. Griger, F. Harris, J. Marone, and R. Ward.

Principal Harry E. Tatoian presents sweater awards to the senior cheerleaders, J. Provencher, F. Patrevita, P. Bartholomew, and to the co-captains of the football team, W. Smyth, and W. Bourque.

The football season got off to a flying start with a victory over a major team, Classical of Springfield. Smyth and Bourque furnished the spark for this victory. The Killingly game was pulled out of the fire with only three minutes of play left. Then the team was the victim of the "flu" bug for three weeks. This necessitated the canceling of two games. Trade took the measure of the boys when they were not quite recovered but in the last two games the Green and White shut out its opponents.

The varsity football team was composed mainly of Seniors this year. Besides the usual opponents our players had to overcome the insidious attacks of Asiatic Flu. Despite the virus handicap, the record, 4-0-1, speaks well for the Green Raiders.

Indications are a greater number of high school graduates are now enrolled in our colleges and universities than ever before in the history of our country. This is most encouraging, for it demonstrates a realization on the part of our youth, a desire to better equip themselves for the tasks that lie ahead.
